UNDERWATER MAYHEM!

At last the time has come to start a voyage of exploration! I wonder what we will discover!
We will be the first Eternians in over 1000 years to sail across the Charobic Ocean

I have just finished working on my new heroic vehicle, the Aquascout. This seems like the perfect test for it!
Let's hope we don't have to put it through all its battle tests!
No, it would be good if we were able to avoid any battles with the Forces of Evil this time!

Soon the Aquascout is sailing into the open sea...

At that moment, the Aquascout is pulled beneath the waves by the eerie energy source...

For several days Adam and Orko wait to hear word from their friends... but each day brings only silence!
Have you thinking what I am, Adam?
I must be! Wait here while I transform!
Adam holds up the mighty mystic sword and speaks his sacred oath...
By the Power of Grayskull... I have the Power!
He-Man then calls Moss Man, Sy-Klone, Snout Spout and Roboto for a briefing...
...And we haven't heard from them! We'll use the Sub cruiser and search for them!
I pray we are not too late!
Minutes later the Sub-cruiser ploughs through the calm sea...
Using what they know of Man-At-Arms' intended course they set off for the Charphic Ocean...

Look at the scope! There's something appearing on its screen!
It looks like a cloud!
As the underwater scope brings the strange object into focus...
Gasp!
It's a gigantic mat of floating seaweed! Incredible!
The seaweed hasn't appeared by chance, however! From his hiding place on the sea floor Mer Man, watches his handiwork...
Skeletor guessed that He-Man would take this route to try and save his foolish friends!
The seaweed quickly clogs up the vital marine engine of the Sub-cruiser.
The ship's stopped! Let's get outside!

In an effort to clear away the clinging seaweed the Heroic Warriors swim outside...
Mer-Man immediately puts part two of Skeletor's plan in action...
Attack!
The Warriors suddenly find they have a new menace to face...
Split up! We must stop these creatures before the seaweed does permanent damage to our Sub-cruiser!

Master Mail

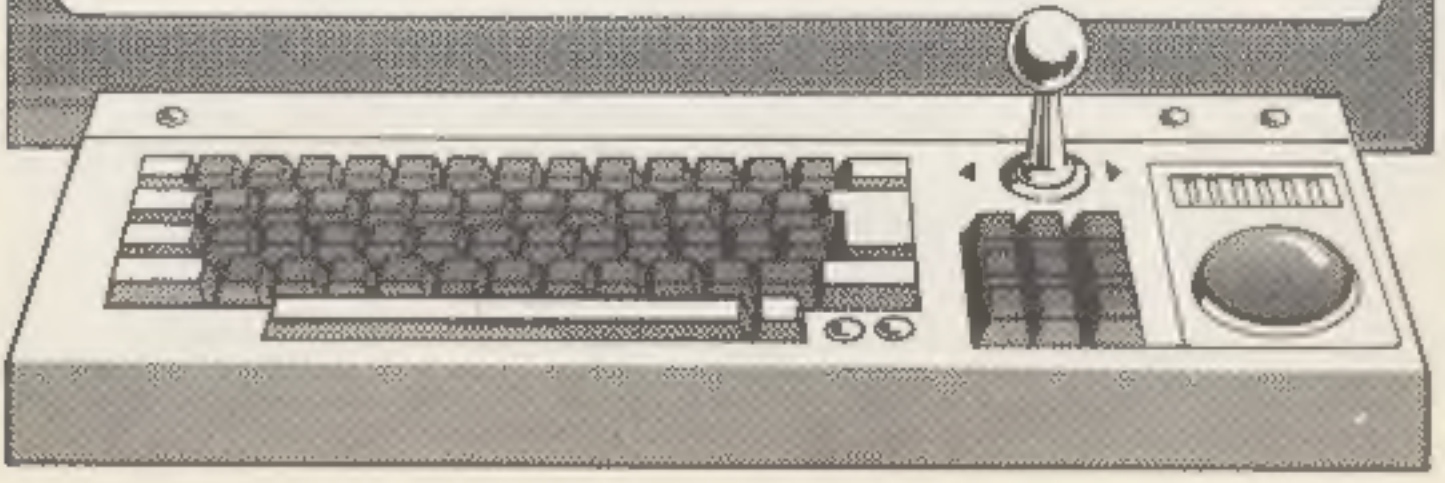
Dear Scrollos,
How far is Eternia from the sun?
CRAIG WILSON, Cumbernauld.
I'm not sure whether you mean from our sun or its own, Craig, so I'll tell you both. Eternia is 250,000,000 miles from its own sun and 1,000,000,000,000 miles from our sun!

Dear Scrollos,
Who is the master of Ninjor and Scare Glow and what is Mosquitor?
GIRDWOOD ANDERSON, Falkirk.
As seen in Adventure Magazine No.9, Girdwood, it is Skeletor who is the master of the first two nasties that you mention. As for Mosquitor, you could say that he is the Evil Horde's vampire! He is an evil energy-draining insectoid who moves in on his prey, stings them hard and sucks them dry!

Why is there a computer at the bottom of Master Mail?
MARTIN MONKSFIELD, London.
The picture of the computer, Martin, signifies the way in which I receive information about the Masters. Once it is tuned in, my computer decodes signals from Eternia so that I can relate the stories to you!

Dear Scrollos,
How long are Spikor's spikes and how far can Mantenna see?
DOUGLAS SILLETT, Somerset.
Right then, Douglas, Spikor's spikes are 20cm long. Mantenna can see twice as far as anyone else because of the elevation he can achieve, a bit like a periscope!

Dear Scrollos,
For how long has King Randor reigned?
LIAM MORGAN, Poole.
Easy question, easy answer, Liam. 26 years.



ZZASCH!
ZZASCH!
Bah! My creatures didn't even slow them down! Skeletor will be displeased with this!
With the creatures gone, the Heroic Warriors quickly cut away the clinging seaweed.
That's the last of it!
After the slight delay, the Heroic Warriors resume their search for Man-At-Arms and Teela.

Because the craft can travel faster on the surface than below, He-Man takes the craft up... but as the ship breaks the surface...
Lock all external openings!
What's happening?
The craft is slowly pulled back beneath the ocean surface...
We've caught in a powerful magnetic field! We're helpless!
As the craft descends, a strange shape can be seen outside the ship...
The sensors show it is made of metal!
It looks like a giant spider!
